Roy Nelson resigns as football coach

Thought for today

Where you are wanted a lot, go a little. Where you are wanted a little, don't go at all.

The nice thing about meditation is that it makes doing nothing quite respectable.

Post Office closed on Thursday

There will be no regular residential or business mail delivery, or lobby window service, at the Antioch Post Office on Thanksgiving Day, Thursday.

Officer-in-Charge John D'Amico said special delivery and lock box service will be provided on a holiday schedule, from 2:30 to 5:30 p.m.

Normal mail service will resume on Friday.

Roy Nelson has resigned after 16 years as head football coach at Antioch High School.

He will remain at the school as a physical education instructor. Mr. Nelson also has been urged by the district's school board to remain as a football coach at a different level.

"I'll probably coach the freshman 'D' squad," Mr. Nelson joked.

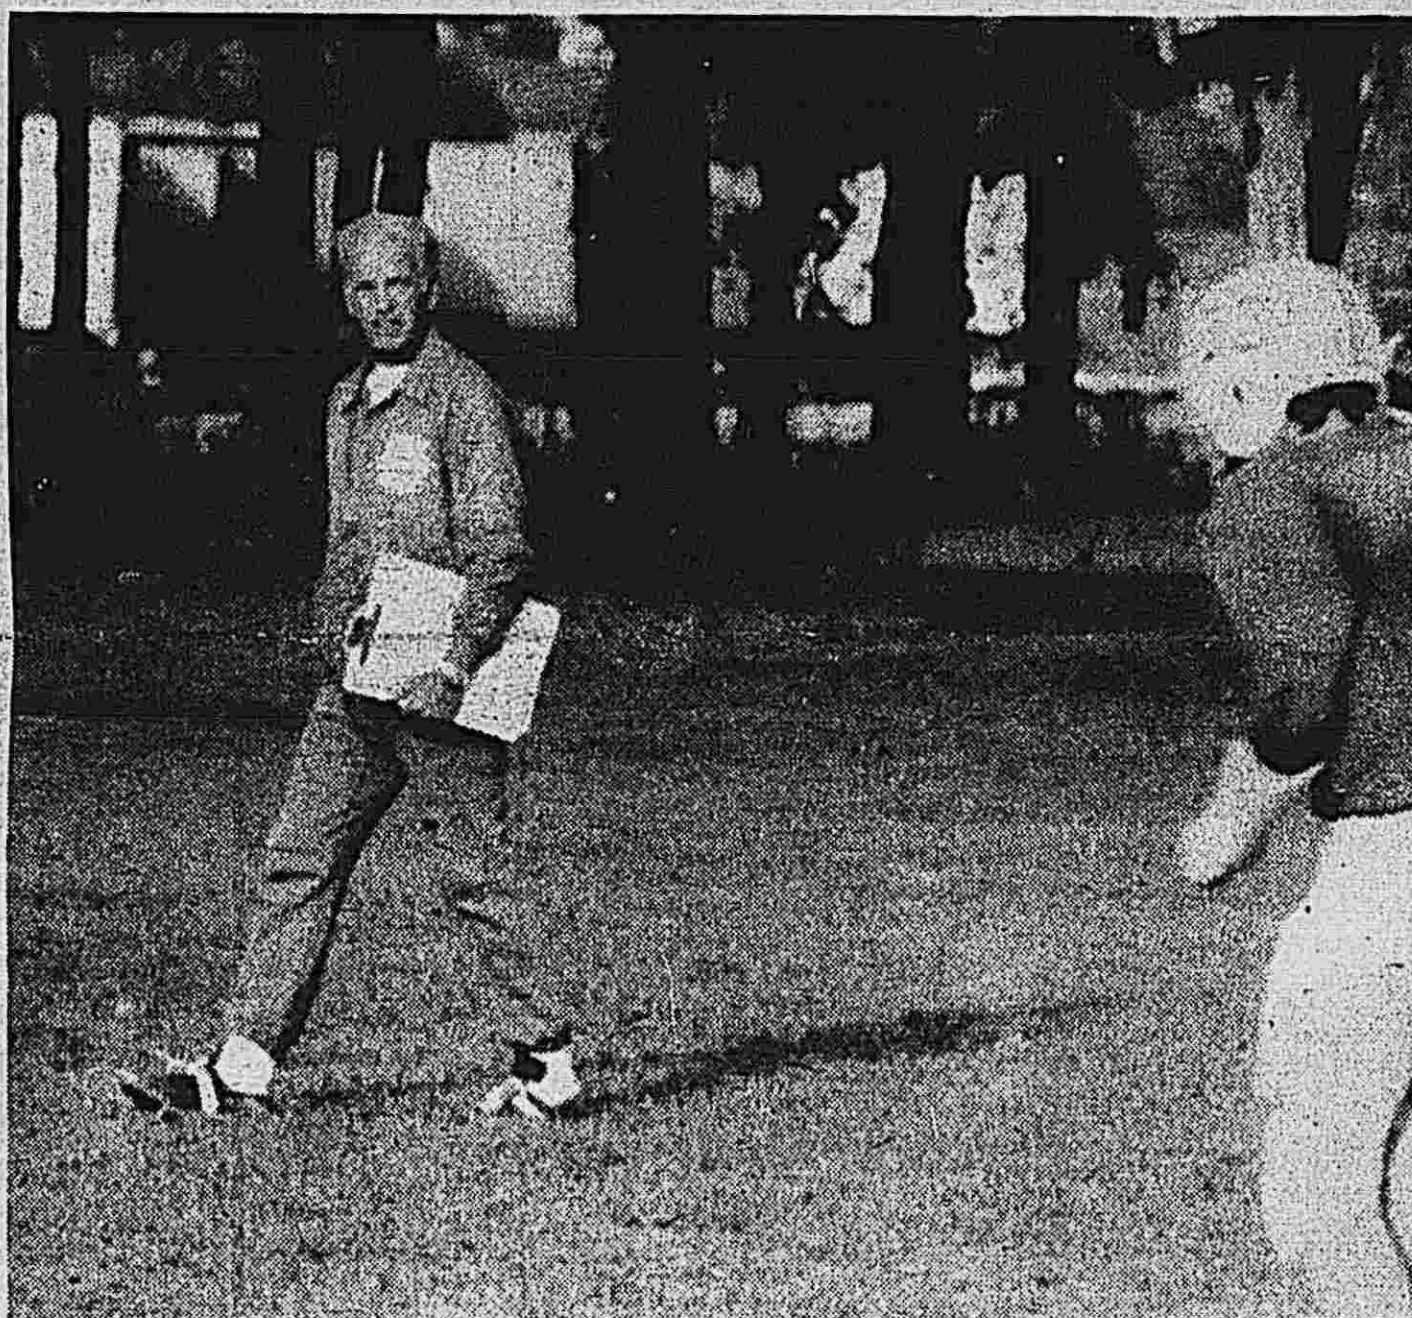

HIS REPLACEMENT AS head varsity coach is expected to come from his present staff of assistants.

When the school board accepted his resignation "with regret" last week it announced:

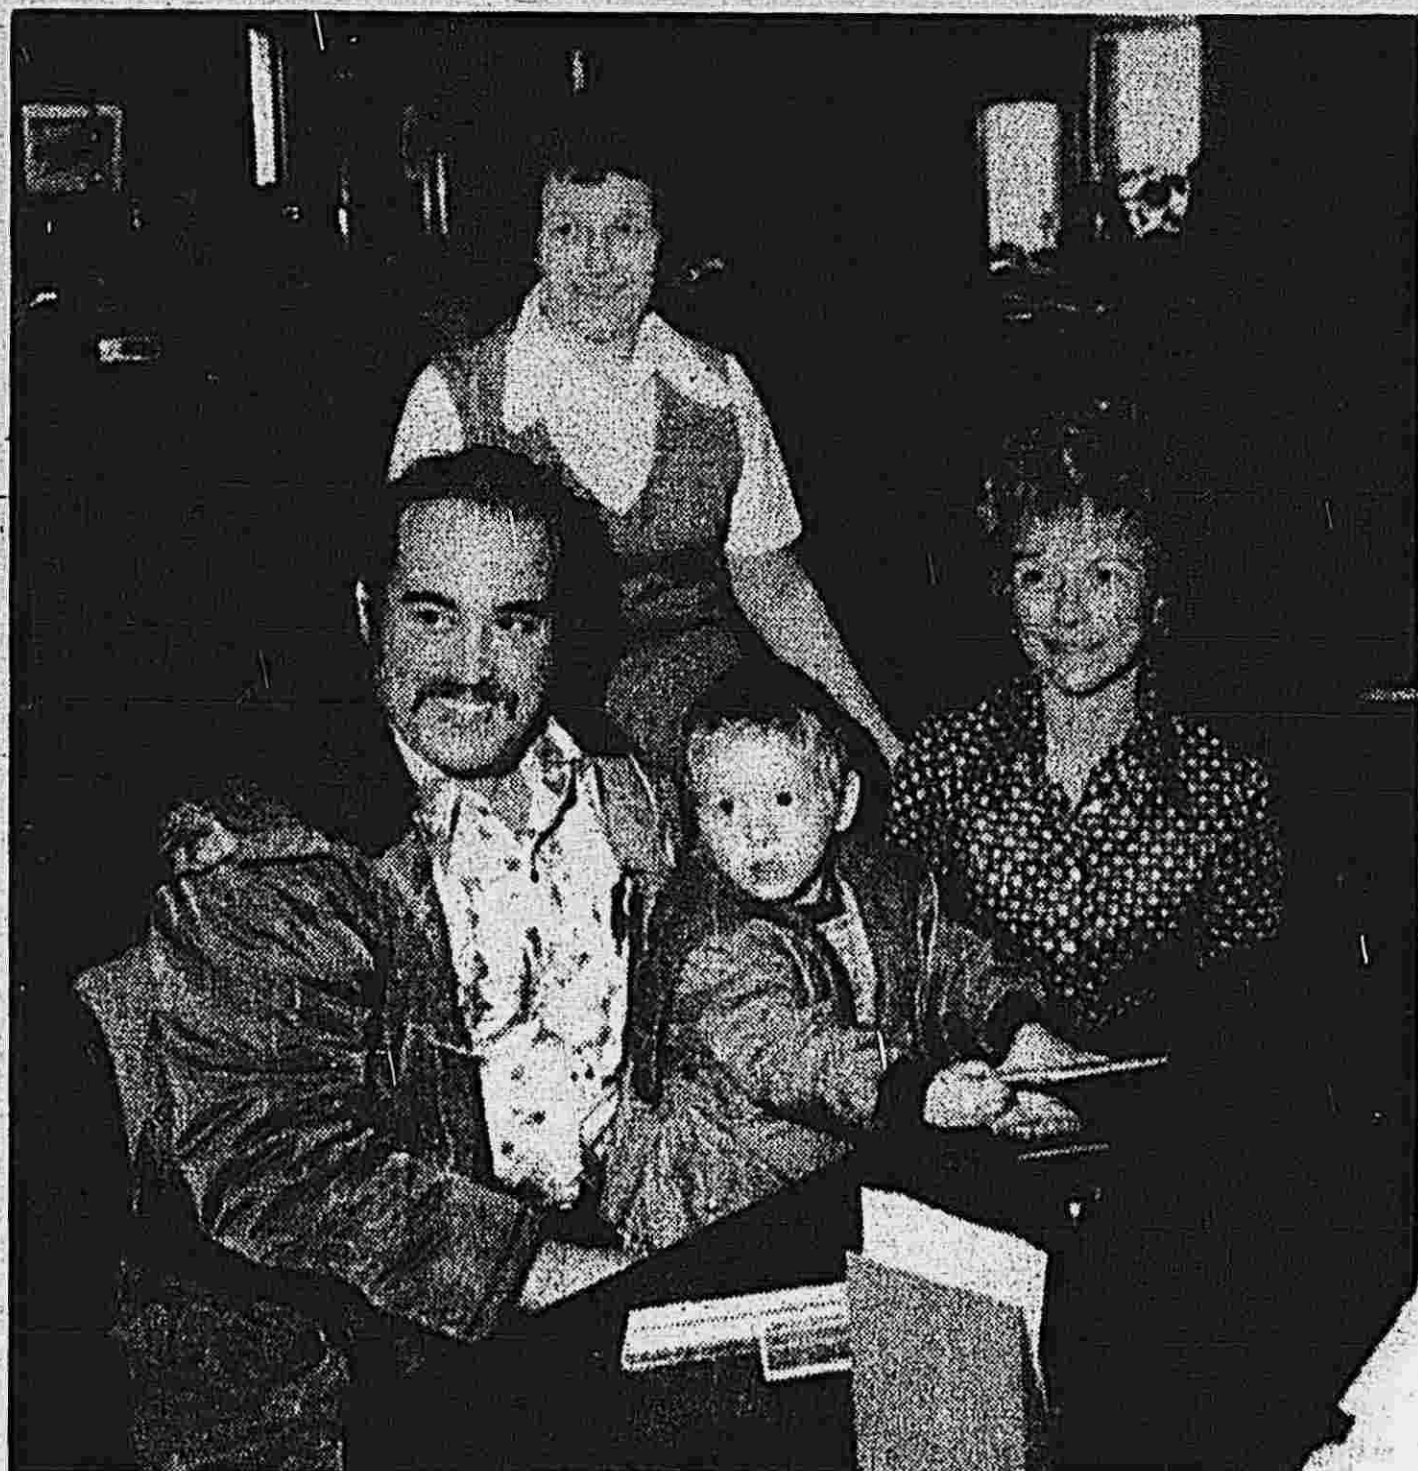

"A search for his successor will be instituted immediately, but it will be confined to the present staff of the high school at this time since the resignation did not open a teaching position."

The school board called Mr. Nelson "the dean of football coaches in the Northwest Suburban Conference." He came to Antioch in 1958 as a sophomore coach and took over the varsity job in 1962 when Bob Walther moved to Arlington Heights.

State Bank collecting money to save 'Mikey'

The fund at the State Bank of Antioch, to help "Mikey" Rebellato, reached $10,200 early Tuesday morning.

A lot more money is still needed and contributions are being accepted by the bank's "new accounts" department.

Two-year-old "Mikey" has leukemia, a deadly illness. He was scheduled to fly Tuesday, with his father, John, and 6-year-old brother, Johnny, to the Hutchinson Cancer Research Center in Seattle, Wash.

THE REBELLATO FAMILY'S money is running out, so Joanne Kitterman of Antioch, who works with Mr. Rebellato at Baxter Lab, got the idea of asking the State Bank to accept donations for the family from Round Lake.

"I really didn't know that there were so many people out there who still cared about each other," Mikey's mother, Ellen, said late last week. "I really didn't know."

Johnny, 6, is going to Seattle with Mike to donate bone marrow from his hip in a long-shot gamble to save Mike's life.

"The hospital called us and told us there was a vacancy available on Tuesday," Mrs. Rebellato said. "Mikey had to be there then."

The $800-a-day expenses Mikey faces in the hospital has brought a surge to the fund set up by the State Bank.

Some remaining insurance coverage on Mike also will help, his father said. And for medical reasons, Mike can't wait.

"I'll stay here with Billy (10) and Tina (3)," Mrs. Rebellato said. "My nerves are about shot. I wouldn't be much good to the rest of my family out there."

"We've had so many wonderful letters," she said, "from people all over the country. I'm going to thank them, not just for the money. They've said such wonderful things."

Happenings

IT WAS almost a spring day on Sunday when the Rev. Steve Williams conducted the annual Thanksgiving Day Chapel Service at the Allendale School in Lake Villa.

Rev. Williams, pastor of the Antioch Methodist Church, accompanied by Paul Cramer at the organ, Lance Smith on the guitar, and Mrs. Dorie Hubbard, conducted an inspirational service in the Farwell Chapel on Allendale's campus.

The audience of 90 included Allendale residents, staff, visitors, members of the board of trustees and members of the Methodist church.

MICHAEL WILL HAVE TO STAY in a special isolation room for a minimum of 60 days. Average stay at the cancer center is 100 days.

Mr. Rebellaio said his hospital insurance will run out after one month. And he will be forced to take an unpaid leave of absence from his job as a technician at Baxter so he can be with Michael and supply him with his blood.

So far, Michael has been treated at Children's Memorial Hospital in Chicago. "All the drugs have been tried that are available," said Mr. Rebellaio, "and the bone marrow transplant is the only thing left."

"They had success with this treatment. The only thing is Michael's age. Treatment seems to work better with kids 5 or 6 or older. The chance for success and long term survival is about 20 percent. But that is better than nothing."

"The transplant will be a failure if all the leukemia cells are not killed," Mr. Rebellaio said. After treatment with radiation and drugs, the transplant will take place. Michael's brother, Johnny, will be put under general anesthesia and a needle will be used to draw bone marrow from five or six places in his body.

Johnny's bone marrow will be inserted into Michael, where it will hopefully replace the marrow which was killed.

There also is a possibility of rejection of the donor's bone marrow. This is something the family will have to live with.

"The rejection could happen in six months or in a year," said Mr. Rebellaio.

"The treatment is very risky, but the only thing Mikey has left and we're going to try it," he said.

Commentary

The Dec. 10 referendums

In 2½ weeks, on Saturday, Dec. 10, voters in both the village and township will be asked to approve referendums for a new safety building, housing the Antioch fire department and rescue squad.

The reasons why a new safety building is necessary, and what it will mean to the community, are outlined in another story in today's paper.

One of the biggest reasons is that the floors in the present fire station aren't sturdy enough to safely hold the fire trucks.

There are many other reasons why voters should say "yes" in the Dec. 10 referendum. For example, a new safety building is an eventual "must," and it will cost a lot more to build later on, or a couple of years from now.

WE HAVE BEEN in Antioch for nearly four years and, like anyone who has lived here from one to 100 years, we are tremendously impressed with the service the village and township receive from their volunteer firemen and rescue squad members.

You've heard how often those sirens go off, and you've seen how fast the volunteers dash from their jobs or homes to get to headquarters, from where they rush to help those in trouble. They are among the most respected crews in the state.

Remember, they aren't paid.

Perhaps you've heard those sirens late at night and, in the comfort of your TV chair or bed, realized that other men were darting from their homes to help whoever was in trouble.

MOST OF US, at one time or another, have been on the other end of those calls. We remember the one fire we had since coming to Antioch, and how amazed we were at the speed and efficiency with which it was put out. The response from the fire department was fantastic.

The rescue squad answers even more calls, as you may know.

Now, they need new headquarters and they're calling us. How are we going to answer?

Since coming to Antioch four football seasons ago one of our regular news sources has been Roy Nelson.

In our 70 or 80 years of covering sports (well, it seems that long) we have worked with a lot of football coaches but never with as fine a gentleman as Roy Nelson.

Since learning of his resignation as varsity coach last week several of his former players, and parents of his players, have expressed the tremendous respect they have for the way he treated his athletes.

WE'RE GOING TO MISS working with Coach Nelson, but fortunately the job apparently will be filled by one of his assistants. First-class people surround themselves with first-class assistants, and that's what Antioch High School has in its coaching department, thanks to Athletic Director Ward Lear and Mr. Nelson.

We want to start telling you about the "touch of class" we feel Roy Nelson has brought to the Antioch High School football program in the last 16 years. But first we have to mention the subtle sense of humor he wields to get his messages across.

For example, he told the school board last week that some of his strongest competition in the past several years came from General Motors, Pabst Blue Ribbon and Salem cigarettes in the task of making mature athletes and young men of his football players.

Because the high school has an administration and school board that appreciates Mr. Nelson's ability to express the truth, they included that statement in the press release about his resignation. A lot of school boards and administrators might have quavered and squelched the allusion.

YEARS AGO, ANTIOCH wasn't the best place in which to coach a football team, Mr. Nelson told us. There were fights, as in other towns.

"Sometimes we had to back the bus right up to the football field to get the players in after the game," he said.

"Win, lose or draw, I think we've come a long way," Coach Nelson continued. "We haven't lost the equipment we did years ago. The kids have respected that. They also know if they are seen downtown with a school jersey on, a coach will yank it right off him."

"The vocabulary was kind of rough, too, and we've cleaned that up, even though we're fighting against TV now. I hope if they say anything about Roy Nelson, it will be that he tried to teach a little more than punt, pass and kick out there, and maybe the players learned something that will make them better citizens."

Letter

To the Editor:

Just a few lines to touch on some neighborhood items. First in sincere appreciation to you, not only for your fine journalistic ability but for giving Antioch a newspaper to be proud of.

Your excellent manner of hitting the highlights of each week's happenings, and putting each item in its proper perspective.

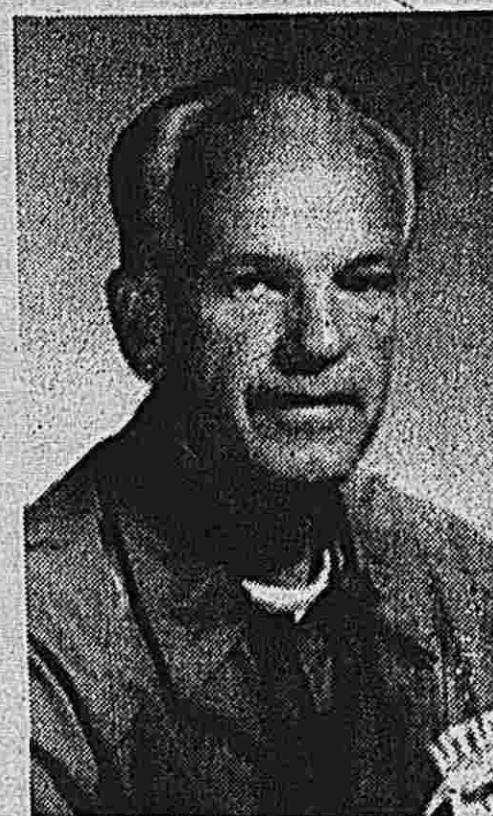

Your entertaining features - "Along the Way with Annie Mae," and "Town Crier column." Your "Pfarr Corner" - "Time Machine" - "Sonia" and others. Also fine photography.

Then, too, a word of thanks for the timely articles on the very important upcoming referendum on Dec. 10th, impressing the voters of the serious aspect in needing the new fire and rescue squad building.

It's always a pleasure each Wednesday to receive the Antioch News in the mail, and suggest that others do likewise.

Thanks again, for keeping your trained finger on the pulse of Antioch.

leading 30-0 at halftime. At the end the score was 30-12. The Wauconda coach came across the field and said:

"Thanks, Roy, we appreciate it."

"What do you mean?" said Roy, as if he didn't know. "We beat you."

"Yes," said the Wauconda coach, "but you let us score."

We remember him walking off the field after one of Antioch's games. A little girl drifted away from her parents and tagged after him, looking up with a smile. Coach Nelson ruffled her hair, winked, and said: "Hey, did you pay to get in?"

AFTER ANTIOCH LOST a hard-fought championship game at Grant two years ago, Coach Nelson had pride in his team's performance but he was more proud of the way the players walked across a muddy field, in a downpour, and shook hands with the athletes who had beaten them.

That's the way Antioch players are now, after 16 years under Roy Nelson.

"There are so many good kids I have memories of," he said, and then he rattled off names of players who have grown up to become good citizens.

Before he came to Antioch, Roy coached at Mendon, Ill., (and he insisted we spell the name correctly). He laughed and said, "That's where I learned this business. I was head coach in basketball, football and track, drove the school bus, chaperoned the dances, swept out the gym and went to church every Sunday."

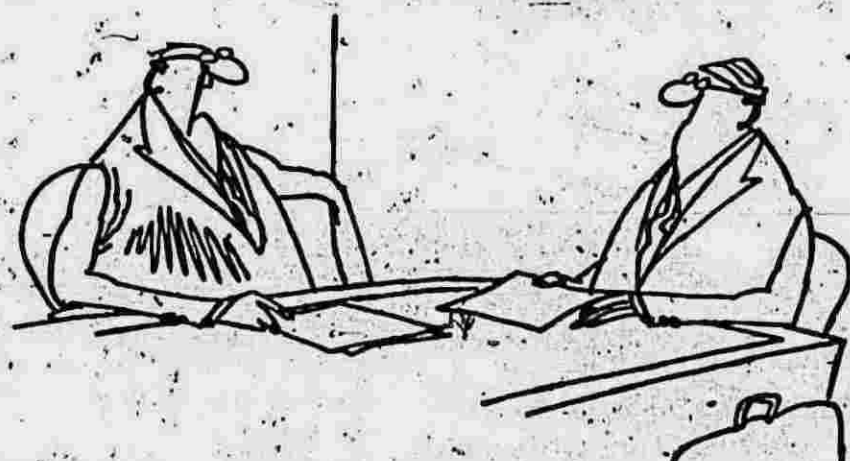

WE'RE GOING TO MISS chatting with you, Coach Nelson.

"Come on over," he said, "the coffee pot's always on."

That's exactly what he said when we first met him in 1974.

"Or look for me on the curb," he smiled. "I'll be watching the parade go by."

It should be a good parade. Roy Nelson has spent his career, quietly and by example, inspiring young men to get in step.

"I say, 'Thank God for Inflation!' ... How else could we afford today's prices?"

DECA group sells cheese and sausage

Antioch High School's Distributive Education club is in its ninth year of existence and to help support club activities, students have an annual fund raising drive.

This year they will be selling cheese and sausage.

D.E. students will sell in the high school district from now until Dec. 5th.

"The club would appreciate everyone's support in this drive for crucial funds," a spokesman for the group said. "We'll be selling Wisconsin Kaukauna Club cheese."

The club is a member of the Distributive Education Clubs of America (DECA).

DECA is a national organization operating through America's high schools to develop future leaders in marketing and distribution. The membership includes 180,000 students in the 50 states.

In addition to high school classes, the students go to a daily D.E. class for formal education in the business world. They study selling, buying, advertising, display, human relations, problem solving, and other areas of marketing and distribution.

After school the DECA student goes to his job training center; a local business which provides goods or services. Here he gets first-hand experience of how businesses are owned and operated.

DECA students also participate in conferences and competitive events in business-related contests throughout the country.

MEMBERS OF THE ANTIOCH Lions Club were busy Sunday, packing and distributing Thanksgiving baskets for 14 needy families in the village and township. From left: chairman Rich Kufalk and co-chairmen of the annual project, Bruce Ahlquist and Dave Heath. The baskets included turkeys and hams, canned goods, potatoes, stuffing and fruit. Produce donated by the Antioch A&P store helped the Lions fill the baskets. The recipients included some blind and deaf persons, and needy families whose names were obtained from the township office and Lions Club members.

High School approves 2 teacher assistants

The Antioch High School board of education last Thursday approved college students Kit Kakacek and Tracy Tobias to spend the month of January as teacher assistants. They will receive college credit for their work.

Business manager Kenneth C. Wierschem reported that the assessed valuation for 1976 was 102½ million dollars, an increase of approximately 14 percent over the previous year.

The board adopted the levy for taxable property for the school district for the year 1977 in the amount of $2,008,200, an approximate increase of 10.7 percent.

Architect Wayne F. Machnich reviewed updated drawings for life-safety work under consideration by the district. The time schedule calls for drawings to be completed and the project to be bid in January or February.

DORA J. BEATTIE ATTENDED the fall conference of the Illinois Business Education Association in Springfield Nov. 10-12.

Miss Beattie was one of several high school teachers invited to present an educational exhibit at the conference.

New license plates to arrive soon

SPRINGFIELD- Over-the-counter sale of 1978 passenger license plates in Illinois financial institutions will begin Thursday, Dec. 1.

Secretary of State Alan J. Dixon reminded motorists that Dec. 1 is the first day the new plates can be displayed legally on vehicles.

A total of 412 banks, and 34 savings and loan associations will sell license plates over the counter this year. Included are the State Bank of Antioch and the Lake Villa Trust and Savings bank.

HAPPENINGS

A COMBINED immunization, hearing and vision clinic for children will be held Wednesday, Nov. 30, at St. Peter's school in Antioch.

The clinic is conducted by the Lake County health

All about town ...

By LINDA WALKER

BJ's Fashions for Men has extended its anniversary sale through this weekend. The terrific bargains offer a head start on gift ideas with tremendous savings. Better hurry, sale ends Saturday.

RAY JENSSEN AND RAY Glassman were flying in from Florida recently when they had to make an emergency landing in Atlanta because of a belligerent fellow on the air-craft. Seems the character was harassing passengers and the crew and had to be taken off the plane by the Atlanta police force.

In order to land without warning the pesty passenger, the pilot simply set the plane down on the airfield with near full-throttle. Ray Glassman said he had never experienced anything like it before.

Sure glad our two terrific friends made it back to Antioch safe and sound.

GREG DUBAS, WHO IS with Ben Franklin Family Center, has been promoted. Greg is now the Director of Operations for all six department stores situated throughout northern Illinois.

We're going to miss Greg as manger of the Antioch store but we're sure Don Marski will do a great job as his replacement.

Congrats to both of you.

IT'S BEGINNING to look a lot like Christmas. The village of Antioch completed the street decorations just in time for Santa's arrival this Saturday.

Santa will visit with children at White's Ice Cream Parlor (775 Main St.) from 12:30 to 5:50 p.m. Better get your Christmas lists ready.

To enforce crosswalks

Pedestrians will face less danger in the downtown crosswalks on Main and Lake Streets, it was decided at Monday night's village board meeting.

Assistant Police Chief Chuck Miller said his men will be watching the crosswalks closely, during shopping hours and after school. Pedestrians have the right-of-way, Miller said, not motorists.

Trustee Edgar Simonsen raised the issue when he said he has received several complaints about drivers not stopping for pedestrians.

"We'll put forth a special effort to enforce this," Miller said.

IN OTHER ACTION, the trustees voted to accept bids for the demolition of the old Willowdale Dairy building in Williams Park. A legal notice with details appears on page 18.

A three-way stop sign will be installed at the intersection of Hillside Ave. and Blackman Terrace. Trustee J. Irving Walsh said he checked the area and didn't see a necessity for it. He was the only trustee voting "no."

Five new probationary firefighters were approved for the Antioch Fire Department. The trustees approved Chief Tod Maplethorpe's appointment of Daryl Gussarson, Tim Mortensen, Mike Gutowski, Robert Kennedy and Larry Pawlowski.

Gift of time and love will make this Christmas perfect

If you're looking for a gift for mother that's easy on the budget yet filled with loving thoughts, why not give her a promise of your time and help for Christmas?

It might take the form of so many days work of after-dinner clean up and dish duty. Or an offer to take over the ironing for a week... or a month!

Even a vow from teenagers to keep a close-to-spotless room in the upcoming year will make any mother beam with contentment.

Make a list of all of the jobs your mother has to do—just in one day!—and see where you can be of help to her.

Then, make a vow to yourself to keep the promise of your gift and you'll be well on your way to giving mother one of the best Christmas presents ever!

With bank employees cooking and the 4-H'ers waiting on tables more than 300 people were served between 8 a.m. and 2 p.m.

"FIRST BANK IS PLEASED to be serving the Antioch and Lake County 4-H program," said L.M. Woods, president of the bank.

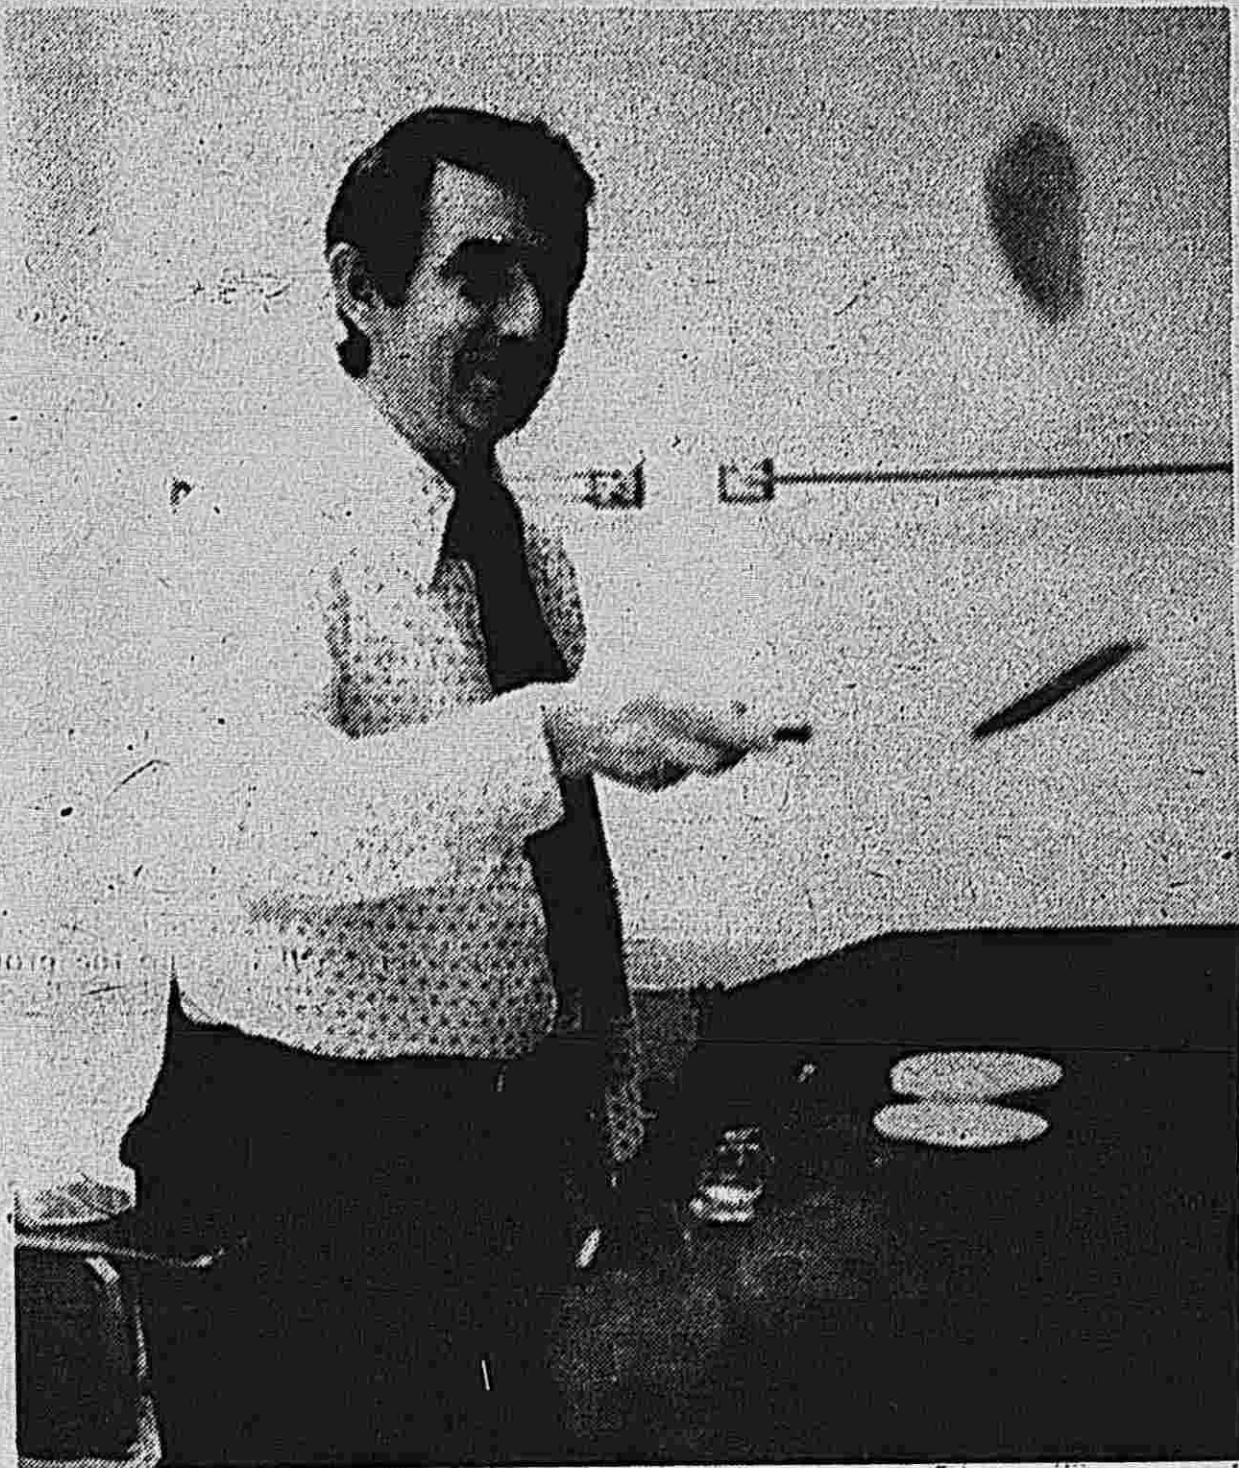

Carolyn Van Patten, mortgage officer and organizer of the pancake breakfast, announced winners of prizes. They were:

Esther Hamlin, Lovelei Miller, Rosline Scheske and Pete Pearce, who will receive hams.

Other cuts of meat from the pig purchased by First Bank at the 1977 Lake County Fair went to Lynn Lagerstrom, Barbara Smith, Grant and Sue Dittmer, Irene Szol, Virginia Magiera, Bernie Dost, Dawn Quedenfeld, Jim Machowicz, Minnie Eder, Richard Beake, Pam Hunley and Lucille Nordhausen.

SERVING PANCAKES at the breakfast were Celeste Kral and Michelle Szof.

The village board Monday night gave The Antioch News permission to move from 950 Main St. next door to 952 Main St., the former Gambles store owned by Rudy Eckert.

We'll be moving sometime between now and Dec. 31, as soon as I get organized.

Erlene Pearce, one of our executives, has been trying to pin me down as to whether we'll be moved by Christmas.

"What's the difference?" I asked.

"I just want to know," Erlene said, "which halls to deck with boughs of holly."

I'M LOOKING FOR an answer to a question and, so far,

Township 'shows off' new building

Hundreds of Antioch area residents, along with friends and officials from nearby communities, visited the new township building on Rte. 173 Sunday.

The occasion was an "open house" to show the public the neat, new facilities in which Antioch township business is now conducted.

Supervisor Jim Fields and other township officials were the hosts, and a special guest was Lloyd E. (Red) Murrie, who served for 22 years as supervisor before stepping down. Fields was elected in a landslide vote last April.

The new township building was a project of Murrie's administration. His wife, Louise, and daughter, Marilyn, were there Sunday to share in the praise "Red" received from his many friends.

resignation with deep regret," Superintendent Warren Polley said. "We thank him for his many years of service and are urging him to remain in the program."

Coach Nelson's teams won conference championships in 1968 and 1972. The 1972 team included his son, Rick, a defensive halfback who later became an All-American college wrestler at Western Illinois University.

Two years ago, in 1975, the "experts" figured Antioch would finish close to last in the conference, but the Sequoias were amazing. They scored one upset after another and went into the final game against Grant, at Fox Lake, with a chance to tie for the championship. Grant was undefeated and beat Antioch 28-13 in a hard-fought game played in a driving rain on a field of mud that resembled the battlefields and trenches of World War I.

ANTIOCH FINISHED the season with a 7-2 record. It is also important, in retrospect, that the 1977 team won its last two games by scores of 39-12 and 31-0. Those were Roy Nelson's last two games as a varsity coach.

But he won't take the credit. After that stunning 7-2 record of two years ago, Grant's coach, Darrell Baxter, said the conference doesn't give a "coach of the year" award but, if it did, it should go to Antioch's Roy Nelson.

But Nelson told us:

"Look, I've been trying to tell you all season that my assistants, Ted DeRousse and Steve Wapon, are more responsible than I am for this team's success."

"At Antioch High School I'm associated with a lot of nice people," Mr. Nelson said yesterday. "I appreciate the support I've received from Mr. Polley, the administration and the board of education."

AT HIGHLAND PARK High School, Mr. Nelson was an all-Lake County tackle. He went to Bradley University where he played linebacker and offensive tackle. His teammates honored him by electing him captain in his senior year.

After college he coached in Decatur and Mendon, Ill., before coming to Antioch.

no football enthusiast has been able to provide one.

The Green Bay Packers lost their best quarterback, Lynn Dickey, when his leg was broken as he threw a pass and was tackled on the final play of the Packers' 24-6 loss to Los Angeles.

Here's the question: With the Packers 18 points behind, only seconds remaining and victory out of reach, what in the heck was the first-string quarterback doing in the game?

Why did Coach Bart Starr risk injury to Dickey in a hopeless situation like that?

Plaza group gives $175 in prizes

Olga Freund, manager of The Globe-Antioch and Bonnie Litchfield, marketing office of the First Bank of Antioch, selected the winners of the Antioch Plaza Association's anniversary contest.

Democrats 'deplore' Schuetz' candidacy

The Lake County Democratic Party has officially "disassociated" itself from the candidacy of Jerome Schuetz, who recently announced that he would seek the Democratic nomination for sheriff.

The Democratic Central Committee, comprised of the party's 200 elected and appointed committeemen, met Friday in North Chicago. They unanimously adopted a resolution that said:

"Schuetz admitted complicity in the Clavey extortion scheme, and we point with pride to the incumbent Sheriff E.J. "Chick" LaMagdeleine, who has reformed and re-organized the Lake County sheriff's office into a model police department.

The committee said it "deplores the candidacy of Jerome Schuetz for the office of Lake County sheriff; rejects his use of the Democratic Party label, and supports with enthusiasm the re-election of Sheriff LaMagdeleine."

'Many Moons' brings whimsy to PM&L stage

Antioch playgoers should note that curtain time for "Many Moons," PM&L's upcoming holiday show, will be an hour earlier than usual.

The whimsical James Thurber play will open Friday, Dec. 2, at the PM&L Theater, 877 Main St. in Antioch. Subsequent performances are scheduled for Dec. 3, 9 and 10.

Curtain time for all of the performances has been moved up to 7:30 p.m. instead of the traditional later hour. "Be sure to be at the theater by 7:15 p.m. of the night you plan to see the show," a spokesman for PM&L said.

The reason for the change is that "Many Moons" is a family show that children might want to see too. A free pass for a youngster is being made available to each holder of a PM&L season ticket.

THE ORIGINAL THURBER story was dramatized for the stage by Charlotte Chorpenning, and the PM&L production is directed by Don Beveroth.

Imaginatively staged for young people, "Many Moons" sensitively tells the story of a princess who, taken ill, cannot recover until somebody brings her the moon. Her father, the king, is determined to obtain it for her.

The gentle play is not only staged for, but also enacted by, young people. The princess is portrayed by Donna Ruggles and the king by Jim Fabry.

Cynthia is played by Lisa DeBenedetto, the Royal Nurse by Debbie Jones, the Lord High Chamberlain by Art Lee, a Royal Wizard by Scott Paul, and his wife, Paretta by Lori Koenig.

There also is a mathematician, John Woolner; a jester, Dave Moffat and a goldsmith's daughter, Tracy Moffat.

YOU CAN CALL 395-3055 to reserve a time to see "Many Moons."

King Tut photos at First Bank

Antioch residents can get a glimpse of the heralded King Tut exhibit at First Bank of Antioch this week.

Beginning yesterday and running until Saturday, Dec. 3, there will be 12 photographs of some of the artifacts in the King Tut exhibit which was on view at the Chicago Field Museum last summer.

Fifty-five years ago archeologists discovered the 3,000 year old tomb of King Tut filled with breathtakingly beautiful and priceless objects. Included in the exhibit being shown at First Bank will be two photographs showing the original tomb taken at the time of discovery in 1922.

Visitors to First Bank can view the photographs in the main lobby during regular banking hours. The photos are here through the courtesy of Hawthorn Center.

Community Chorus to sing 'Messiah'

"For unto us a child is born, Unto us a son is given."

Once again these words, proclaiming the advent of the birth of a savior, will ring through the sanctuary of St. Benedict's Abbey at Benet Lake, Wis., as the Community Chorus presents the Christmas section of G.F. Handel's "The Messiah."

There will be two performances of this most traditional of all Christmas Oratorios on Sunday, Dec. 4, at 3 p.m. and again at 8 p.m.

Director of the chorus Ralph Brooke announced the soloists as: soprano, Betty Beveroth and Kim Kovach; alto, Eva Harper; tenor, Ken Smouse, and bass, Bernard Izzo.

Little gifts she can use

Looking for some extra delights to put under the tree for mom? Here are some ideas for extra little presents she's sure to appreciate!

A purse size cosmetic case is always a welcome gift. Buy one that's roomy enough to hold all her daily cosmetics, yet compact enough to fit into her bag with room to spare. Some cosmetic cases are made in fine leathers and suedes, some come in durable, wipe 'n clean vinyl in pretty colors and designs.

Women can never have enough pantyhose or stockings. Check her style and color preference and size, then give her a dozen pair wrapped up in a pretty box.

If any of the ladies on your list have pierced ears, you can purchase an earring tree that holds all of her favorite loops and ear studs in order.

There are a number of handy lucite cosmetic trays on the market that will keep a woman's make up and odds 'n ends neat and orderly.

Letter to the Editor

To the Editor:

Since Elvis Presley's death, the public has been swamped with commercials, movies, posters, and assorted paraphernalia commemorating the singer. We have experienced Elvis Presley Week on Channel 7's 3:30 movie, have found his pictures on late night television, have seen innumerable commercials for special albums and posters, have experienced at least two specials on his concerts, etc., etc., etc.

Whether coincidental or not, Channel 9 put on Family Affair after the death of Sebastian Cabot.

Bing Crosby's death initiated his movies to be aired, a special shown the day of his expiration, a commercial for his favorite songs, and so on, and so on.

Doesn't anyone remember the humor and comedy of Groucho Marx? Doesn't he deserve some recognition along with the others? Or doesn't he count? His program, "The Best of Groucho," was even removed from Channel 32's viewing agenda. This is not right. Oh, granted, the television industry was nice enough to show two or three of his more classical movies, but come on, America, are we to so easily forget a master of comedy and simply put his memory into the closet?

To deify past entertainers is fine but to carelessly leave one out who was just as good, if not better in some ways, is disgraceful. I feel Groucho Marx would deserve an apology from us for the tragic thing we have done to him if he were alive today.

VILLAGE AND FIRE DISTRICT

Safety Building is joint venture

According to some experts, it's the people who always worry about being late for appointments who usually arrive early—and have to kill time waiting for the person they're meeting.

"A new and innovative procedure" to the construction of public buildings will be undertaken on Saturday, Dec. 10, when voters in two municipalities — the village of Antioch and the First Fire Protection District of Antioch township — will each be asked to approve bond issues in the amount of $650,000.

The two bond issues will be applied to the construction of a new fire and safety building in the village to provide the facilities needed to serve both the village and the fire protection district.

The building would be owned and maintained jointly by the village and the fire district.

"THIS EXAMPLE OF TWO municipalities pooling their resources in order to provide the best available service is encouraged by the 1970 state constitution," said Harold Warren, municipal finance consultant from Deerfield, who is working with Antioch on the project. "Often communities do not have the resources individually to provide the quality of service required to cope with all emergency situations, whether it be fire, tornado, flood or an epidemic," Warren said.

"By means of intergovernmental cooperation, the high cost of these services can be spread over the area receiving the service in a more equitable manner," he said.

The cooperation also means economy of scale, a better utilization of manpower and equipment and expanded services, according to Warren.

THE FIRE DEPARTMENT of the village and the fire protection district are each presently housed in a building of inadequate size, and without facilities for training or maintenance.

Eleven fire trucks and other vehicles are crowded into the available space. The fire protection district has a new fire truck on order without any space available for this equipment to be housed.

The rescue squad has two mobile intensive care units on hand in addition to one ambulance for emergency services to the area. The rescue squad is also in need of additional space for training and education, village officials point out.

The fire protection district, with a population of approximately 15,000, covers all of Antioch township except the village and the area west of the Fox River.

THE ASSESSED VALUATION of the fire protection district is about $43 million compared to $23.5 million for the village.

The village has been providing fire protection services to the fire district under a contract which calls for payments of a rental fee, a dispatch charge and an hourly rate for responding to calls within the township.

This method of cooperation in the past will form the basis for a future cooperation agreement.

The bonds of the village and of the fire protection district would both be paid over a 15 year period.

THE TAX RATE REQUIRED for bond payment in the village of Antioch would be approximately 10c per $100 of assessed valuation higher than the existing bond tax rate.

A property owner in the village assessed at $10,000 would pay $10 more per year over and above the present tax.

All general obligation bonds in the village will be paid in 1978 and the new bonds will not be subject to payment until 1979.

The tax rate required for bonds in the fire district would be approximately 13.3c per $100 of assessed valuation. The taxpayer assessed at $10,000 in the fire district would pay $13.30 per year for the new fire and rescue squad building.

Bike-A-Thon winners receive new 'wheels'

A total of 66 energetic bicycle riders participated in the sixth annual Bike-A-Thon in Antioch on Sunday, Oct. 2, for the American Cancer Society.

Volunteers for cancer, who rode in the nine Bike-A-Thon routes in Lake County that Sunday, have collected contributions from hundreds of sponsors for a grand total of $32,760 to date. Proceeds from the Antioch route to date are $5,185.

Top riders on the seven-mile Antioch route were honored with other Lake County winners on Nov. 16 at the traditional award dinner held at Andre's Steak House in Richmond.

FIRST PRIZE WINNER in the Antioch event, as announced by Preston J. Reckers, Bike-A-Thon chairman and vice president of the State Bank of Antioch, is Timothy Cook, 376 Birchwood Drive, Antioch, with a total of $725.25. His first-prize 10-speed bike was donated by the State Bank.

The second prize five-speed bike was donated by the Shoe Box in Orchard Plaza, Antioch, to Roger Knowlton, 650 North Ave., with a total of $382.60.

Third prize winner, Shawn Kelly, 7 Zelinger Lane, Antioch, received his three-speed bike from Four Squires of Antioch, with sponsors' donations totaling $322.40.

EACH OF THE prize-winning riders received a certificate of recognition from the American Cancer Society. In addition, a special certificate of recognition was awarded to William H. Groeninger, assistant vice president of the State Bank and internal vice president of the Antioch Jaycees. Mr. Groeninger rode the seven-mile route on behalf of the Jaycees and collected a substantial total of $526 for the purpose of cancer research and not for a bicycle award.

Chairman Reckers reminded all riders who participated in the Bike-A-Thon, and have not yet turned in their money, that sponsor donations are still being accepted at the State Bank.

All money raised in the annual bike riding event will be used in the American Cancer Society's programs of research, education and service to the cancer patient and his family.

FIRST PRIZE WINNER - Timothy Cook, 376 Birchwood Drive, Antioch, received a new ten-speed bike donated by the State Bank of Antioch as top rider in American Cancer Society Bike-A-Thon with a grand total of $725.25. Presentation of the bike was made by Preston J. Reckers, Bike-A-Thon chairman for Antioch and vice president of State Bank.

SECOND PRIZE WINNER - Five-speed bike, donated by Shoe Box, Orchard Plaza in Antioch, was won by Roger Knowlton, 650 North Avenue, Antioch, for collecting a total of $382.60 in sponsor donations for Bike-A-Thon in Antioch. Making presentation is Kenn Nelson of the Shoe Box.

THIRD PRIZE WINNER - Shawn Kelly, 7 Zelinger Lane, Antioch, collected $322.40 from his Bike-A-Thon sponsors in Antioch to win a new three-speed bike. Bill Stanley, left, and Debbie Alexander, right, made the presentation on behalf of Four Squires of Antioch which donated the bike.

Interesting wrestling season awaits Sequoits

"The enthusiasm of this year's team is fantastic," said Ted DeRousse, Antioch High's wrestling coach, as he prepared his gladiators for tonight's opening competition at Zion.

Teams from Round Lake and Mundelein also will be there. Wrestling begins at 6:45. On Friday and Saturday the Sequoits will wrestle in the Rich South tournament and then, at 6:45 p.m. on Dec. 2, they have a dual meet at Warren.

THE FIRST HOME MEET is at 6:30 p.m. on Saturday, Dec. 3. Coach DeRousse said it will be "alumni night."

"This year's schedule is the toughest and best any team in Antioch history has ever faced," DeRousse said. "The Rich South tourney, for example, is the best invitational meet in the state. It has more state champions and place winners than any other tournament."

The Antioch team is "very young with only two possible senior starters," said DeRousse.

"WE WILL HAVE A LACK of experience. But this year's team appears more aggressive," he said.

Antioch lost six wrestlers through graduation, including 132-pounder John Kakacek, who had a 25-6 regular season record and is now on the squad at the University of Illinois.

The Sequoits do have six lettermen back, however, led by junior Marvin Gibson at 119 or 126 pounds. Gibson placed fourth in the state last year at 112 pounds. He had an overall record of 35-6-1.

Heavyweights Rich Packert and Randy Larsen at 126 or 132 are the only seniors available. Larsen was 16-11 at 126 pounds last year.

Other lettermen are sophomore Jon Gibson, 20-10 at 98; junior Jeff Gross, 17-4-1 at 112, now up to 119 or 126, and junior Gene Lehn at 155 or 167 pounds.

DeRousse will fill the remainder of his lineup from a junior varsity team that went 15-1 last year. "We also have some outstanding sophs (off a 14-2 freshman team) possibly making the varsity," said DeRousse.

Top junior candidates include Dave Ashbacher at 167, Vic Mannina at 145, Tim Haviland at 112, Darren Houghton at 138 and Kirk Sarmont at 145 pounds.

The Sequoits were 15-3 in dual meets last year. DeRousse starts his 10th season as coach.

A great moment in sports occurred in 1964 when Sixten Jernberg of Sweden set an olympic record by winning his fourth cross-country skiing gold medal.

Sequoits face Elgin Larkin tonight

3 games in 4 days for Antioch cagers

A year ago Antioch High's basketball team went to the Barrington Thanksgiving week tournament and lost its first three games of the 1976-77 season.

The Sequoits lost 78-55 to Elgin Larkin, 64-57 to Barrington's fine team and 68-66 to Cary-Grove.

If those three teams think Antioch will start this season the same way, they're in for a surprise.

LAST YEAR'S ANTIOCH team was led mostly by juniors who are back this winter with plans to score a lot of victories in their senior year.

They open tonight (Wednesday) against Elgin Larkin at 8 p.m. The Sequoits return to Barrington Friday night to play the host team, Barrington, at 8 p.m.

On Saturday night the Sequoits will tangle with Cary-Grove at 6:30 p.m. Antioch will be favored, at least in that game, because Bob Dubek, Brian Andrews, Tracy Sodman, Tim Huebner and their friends are still wearing Sequoit uniforms.

As a junior Dubek led Antioch by averaging nearly 20 points a game in the three-night Barrington tournament. Sodman, Andrews and Huebner also showed they could score in double figures, not to mention their playmaking and rebounding abilities.

HERE IS THE COMPLETE schedule of the Barrington Turkey Classic:

Wednesday - Barrington vs. Cary-Grove at 6:30 p.m., Elgin Larkin vs. Antioch at 8 o'clock.

Friday - Cary-Grove vs. Elgin Larkin at 6:30, Barrington vs. Antioch at 8.

Saturday - Antioch vs. Cary-Grove at 6:30, Elgin Larkin vs. Barrington at 8.

BARRINGTON WON ITS own tournament last year, edging Elgin Larkin in the final game.

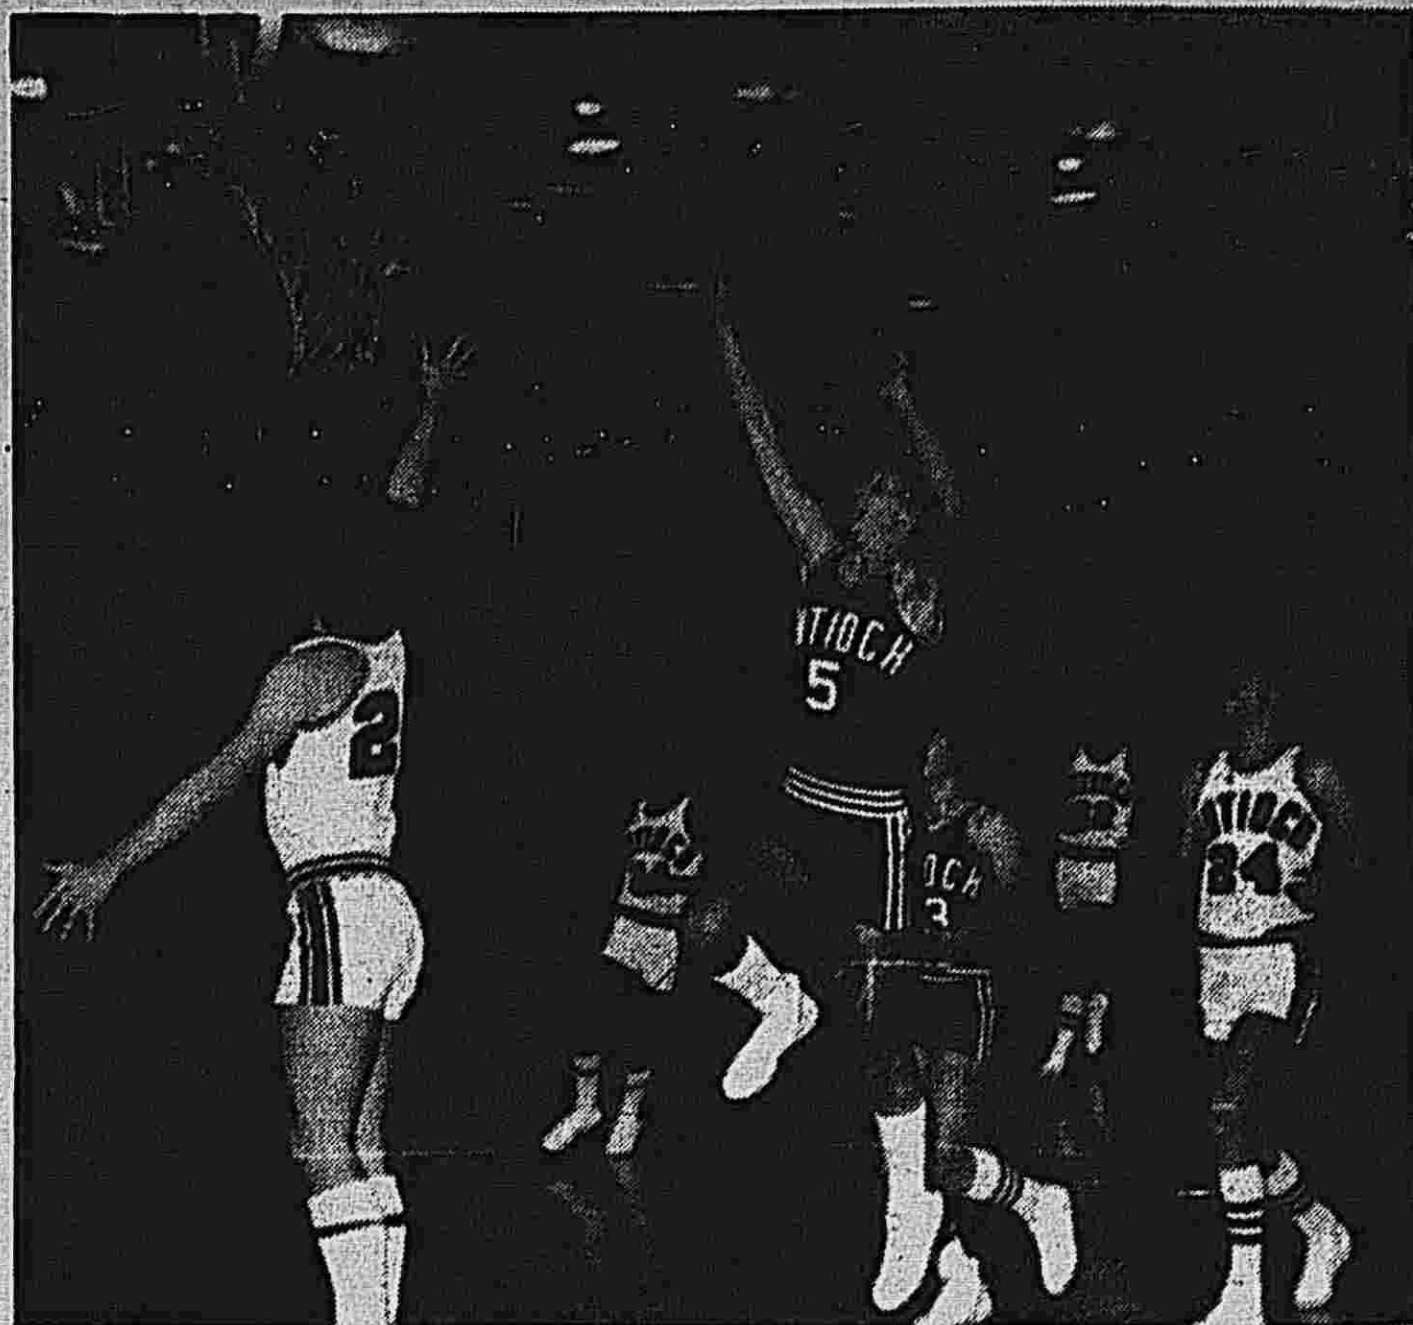

This year Antioch will be a contender for the title.

Coach Roger Andrews' Sequoits also plan to be contenders for the Northwest Suburban Conference championship. They open conference play in Antioch on Friday, Dec. 2, against another league favorite - Warren.

Andrews considers Warren and Woodstock two of the favorites in the Northwest Suburban Conference. Both are in the North Division along with Antioch. Others in the division are Grant, Grayslake and Round Lake.

LAST YEAR'S ANTIOCH TEAM had the school's first losing basketball season in 10 years. The Sequoits were 7-9 in the conference and 10-16 overall.

But the starting lineup was loaded with juniors. Now, as ANTIOCH HIGH'S BASKETBALL players flashed through an intrasquad game last Saturday and will get their first taste of real competition tonight (Wednesday) in an 8 p.m. game against Elgin Larkin at Barrington. The Sequoits also will play in the Barrington Turkey Classic on Friday and Saturday nights.

experienced seniors, they will be joined on the varsity by juniors who had a 15-1 conference record as sophomores last winter.

The six returning lettermen are seniors Bill Dubek, 6 feet 4 inches tall; Brian Andrews, 6-2; Tim Huebner, 6-5; Tom Huebner, 6-1; Tracy Sodman, 6-3, and Dennis Korjenek, 5-8.

Dubek and Andrews made the 10-man all-conference squad and, along with Tim Huebner, were last season's top Antioch scorers.

THIS MONTH COACH ANDREWS and his assistant, Jeff Dresser, had 32 players trying out for the varsity. A squad of 10 seniors and eight juniors was selected.

The other four seniors are Greg Shanks, John Eder, Bill Stryzelecki and Tom Hughes.

The juniors are Roger Plechaty, Dave Gutowski, Rob Nauman, Pete Ploss, Roger Korjenek, Scott Gallagher, Bill Ranker and Chris Oddsen.

Hughes, Ploss and Oddsen are 6-4, an inch shorter than the team's tallest player, Tim Huebner.

LEGAL NOTICE

Dear Water Customer,
Under provisions of the Federal Safe Drinking Water Act, there are certain requirements and standards which must be attained by every public water supply. These requirements and standards were instituted to help guarantee an adequate, clean and healthful water supply.

Among the requirements are the maintaining of an adequate chlorine residue to provide for disinfection protection against disease causing bacteria. To maintain a proper chlorine residue the water department personnel will be doing daily and weekly tests from various points around the Village.

There is a requirement for maintaining a proper level of fluoride in the drinking water. At the present time, the Village water is naturally fluoridated.

There are requirements for monitoring other natural and synthetic chemicals in the water.

There is required continued bacteriological examination of all wells and the water system on a monthly basis.

In the event of a water main break which requires the shutting off of a section of water main there are certain procedures which must be accomplished before the citizens may reuse the water when the main is turned on. These include notification of all residences affected, flushing of shut off section when repairs are completed, checking for chlorine residue at the hydrant and each residence affected, and a water sample sent to the lab for bacteriological examination.

At any time, any of these regulations or standards are violated, it will be necessary for the Village to notify the users by various methods as to the violation, what safeguards, if any, the user has to take, and what is or will be done to correct the violation.

The water dept. will work hard to prevent any violations and to meet the standards expected from our customers. In the event a violation does occur, we hope our customers will help us solve our problems. Together we can guarantee an adequate, clean and healthful water supply.
